

168 Barolin Street Walkervale QLD

Termimesh is a reputable franchise within the building industry for pre-construction and is up for sale.

The owners have regretfully made a decision to sell this arm of their business and concentrate on other avenues within their portfolio. This construction-based entity would suit someone who is wanting to enter the building industry which is hugely supported by the franchisor. You may also wish to add this franchise to your existing business and have access to a large database within your geographical area.

- On acquiring the Franchise you acquire the following:
- ? Ownership of the Franchise for your designated area
 - ? Access to a huge database and IT specifications
 - ? Termimesh- Pre construction
 - ? Water proofing

Price : $85,000 WIWO (SAV + GST)
